1. About 180 Polish soldiers moved into the former Wanda Lech PW Camp near Wirek (Q 51/Y 97) in mid-October 1949 and were still there in May 1950. They were of the 1927 and 1928 classes and belonged to the minorities living in Poland. They were to work in mines for six months after completing a short period of basic military training. The unit was subordinate to a headquarters in a camp near Swietochlowice (Q 51/Y 47), according to soldiers.
2. The bare brickwork of four low camp buildings was completed in late May 1950, southwest of the village of Lagiewniki (Q 51/Y 57), south of the road to Chropaczow (Q 51/Y 57). The quarters were not yet occupied on 27 May 1950.
